

2023 AZ Water Conference

Dedicated to all things water®, Hazen and Sawyer is proud of its active support of the AZ Water Association, including Hazen staff participation in 20 technical sessions and panels at the conference.

Title	Session Track/Presenter
Creating Visibility and Insights Across the Organization Using an Integrated 3D GeoBIM Digital Twin	Asset Management Melinda Law
It's Cheapest to Keep It: Rehabilitation Projects Extend the Value of AZ WWTPs	Wastewater Treatment Doug Kobrick
Tempe Kyrene's MBR Gets a Fresh Start	Wastewater Treatment Katie Vanyo
Not a Typical Master Plan. Going Digital Makes an Integrated Master Plan More Useful!	Utility Management Brindha Dhanasekaran with the Town of Gilbert
Best Practices for Attracting New Industry to Your Municipality	Utility Management Bob Weinschrott & Cayla Cook
 The Future of Reports: Utilizing Digital Tools for Dynamic Integrated Water Master Plans	Utility Management Daniela Panfil & Alec Hanson
Making a Solid Choice: Exploring Dewatering Technologies for a 60 mgd Water Treatment Plant	Biosolids Jason Curl with the City of Chandler
Breaking the Unbreakable Chemical Bonds: Evaluating Supercritical Water Oxidation and Pyrolysis for PFAS Destruction	Biosolids Derya Dursun & Mohammed Abu-Orf
PFAS in Biosolids: Regulatory and Research Update	Biosolids Andrea Odegard-Begay
 Utilities with Low Lead Likelihood: How Tempe is Addressing LCRR Compliance	Regulatory Cayla Cook & Brindha Dhanasekaran

Title

Session Track/Presenter

Lead-Free AZ: Leveraging Digital Tools to Achieve LCRR Compliance in Arizona

Regulatory
Emma Ressler

Application of a Water System Accounting Model to Meet Water Quality Targets and Maximize Cost-Efficiency

Water Resources
Luke Wang

Planning for the Future When Updating Local Limits

Pretreatment
Natalia Hoogesteijn & Mary Sadler

Glendale Wells Program Update

Groundwater
Claire Tilton

Leaning Forward: Lessons Learned in Arizona's First Groundwater Biological Nitrate Treatment System: From Regulatory to Start-up

Groundwater
Daniela Panfil
with the City of Goodyear

Integrated Water Management of Microplastics and PFAS

New and Emerging Technology
Conner Murray & Cayla Cook

Do You See What I See? Seeing the Rain Drops through the Storm

Stormwater
Cole Graham & Rebecca Sydnor

Money Doesn't Grow on Trees, Unless You Know What Orchard to Go To

Conservation
Rebecca Sydnor

The Future of DPR in Arizona

Panel Discussion
Troy Walker (Facilitator)

What Will Arizona's Water Look Like in 2050?

YP Panel Discussion
Daniela Panfil (Facilitator)
Troy Walker (Panelist)

