

Hazen Distribution Event

Transformational approaches to water network challenges

You are invited to join Hazen and Sawyer for an event providing valuable insights and strategies for effective distribution network management.

When: Tuesday, May 13, 2025, 9:00 – 17:00

Where: Watermen's Hall, 16 - 18 St-Mary-at-Hill, London, United Kingdom, EC3R 8EF

RSVP by Friday, May 2, 2025

*Due to limited capacity,
we are only accepting the first 50 responses.*

Hazen

AGENDA

May 13, 2025

Location: Watermen's Hall, 16 - 18 St-Mary-at-Hill, London, United Kingdom, EC3R 8EF

Time: 09:00 – 17:00

09:00 – 09:30	Registration and Networking
09:30 – 09:45	Introduction	Ashley Henderson (Hazen)
09:45 – 10:30	Keynote: The Unintended Impacts of Disinfection Residuals on Biofilms and Discolouration (including 15 minutes of questions)	Prof. Joby Boxall (University of Sheffield)
10:30 – 11:00	Distribution System Water Quality Best Management Practices	Meg Roberts (Hazen)
11:00 – 11:15	Break
11:15 – 11:45	Data Visualization Tools to Improve Network Management	Ben Stanford (Hazen)
11:45 – 12:15	Water in the Wrong Hue: Diagnosing Discolouration	Meg Roberts (Hazen)
12:15 – 13:15	Lunch
13:15 – 13:45	Balancing Corrosion Control and Biofilm Chemistry	Bill Becker (Hazen)
13:45 – 14:30	Panel Discussion: Existing and Emerging Distribution System Challenges	Various Utility Personnel
14:30 – 14:45	Break
14:45 – 16:00	Attendee Participation: Roundtable Activity (60 minutes plus 15-minute debrief) <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Water Quality and Compliance• Corrosion• Discoloured Water• Data and Monitoring Systems	Facilitators: Matt Smiley (Hazen) Bill Becker (Hazen) Ben Stanford (Hazen) Meg Roberts (Hazen)
16:00 – 16:15	Closing Statement	John Wylie (Hazen)
16:15 – 17:00	Networking Drinks

Hazen

